

Map of the Tidal Thames

For urgent navigational or environmental issues +44 (0)203 260 7711
www.pla.co.uk

For urgent help on the Thames call 999 and ask for the coastguard www.rnli.org

*Thames Skills Knowledge Course
TSK 1: below Putney Pier
TSK 2: below Chelsea Bridge
www.active360.co.uk

The Thames through time

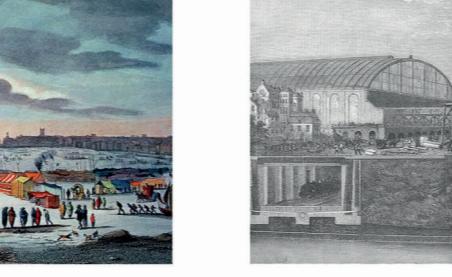

3,500 BC Neolithic settlers

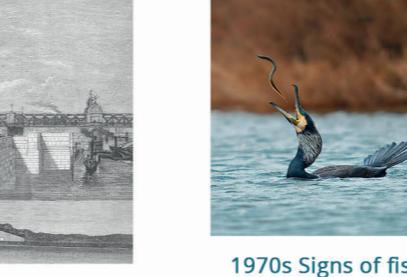

410-1066 Anglo-Saxon period

1209 Old London Bridge

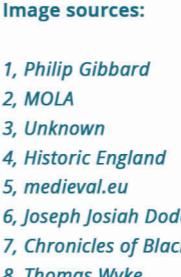

1814 Last Frost Fair

1875 Bazalgette's Sewer System

1970s Signs of fish population recovery

2016 Tideway Tunnel

Image sources:

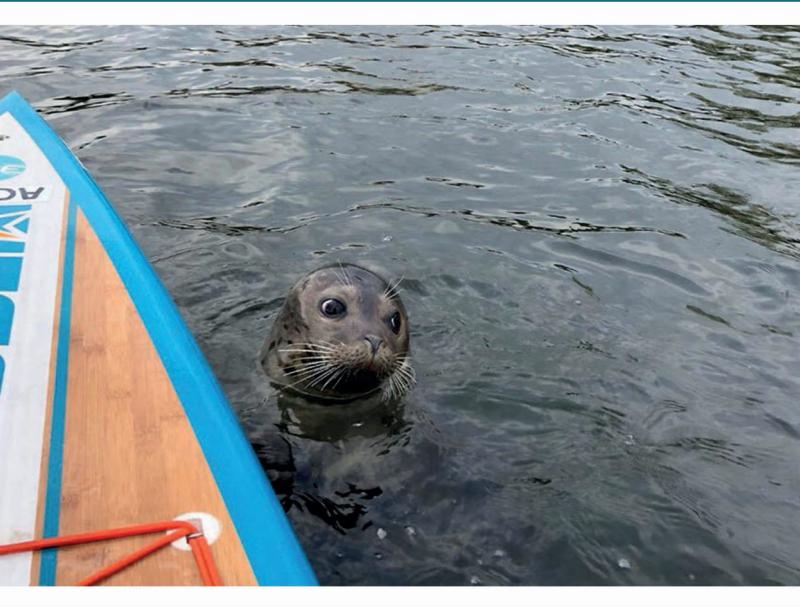

- 1, Philip Gibbard
- 2, MOLA
- 3, Unknown
- 4, Historic England
- 5, medieval.eu
- 6, Joseph Josiah Dodd
- 7, Chronicles of Blackwall yard
- 8, Thomas Wyke
- 9, Alexander Bertram Powell
- 10, Illustrated London News
- 11, Leonardo Fava
- 12, Wanda Bodnar
- 13, Wanda Bodnar
- 14, Tideway

For more information visit:

- Museum of London
www.museumoflondon.org.uk
- Thames Discovery Programme
www.thamesdiscovery.org

Thames Natural History Tour

Discover the Tidal Thames with Active360

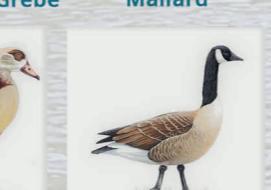

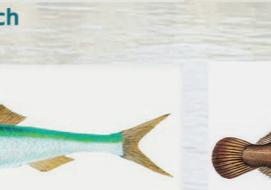

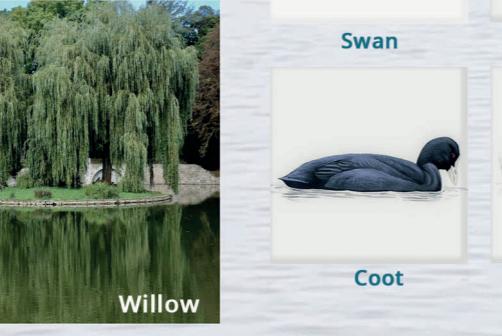

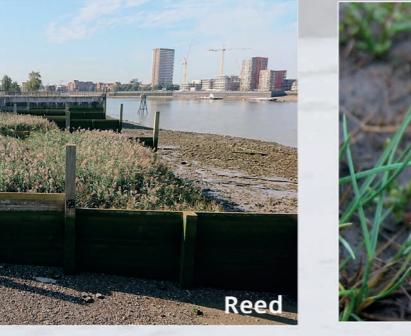

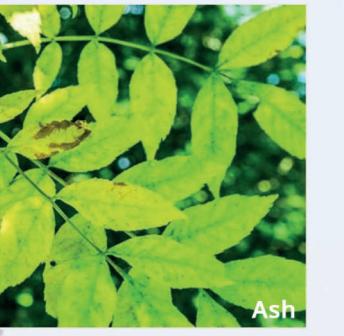

www.active360.co.uk

Created by Wanda Bodnar

Wildlife of the Tidal Thames

Illustrations are not to scale

Source: Unsplash

Harbour or common seal Phoca vitulina

Grey seal Halichoerus grypus

Harbour porpoise Phocoena phocoena

Short beaked common dolphin Delphinus delphis

Bottlenose dolphin Tursiops truncatus

If you spot a marine mammal, submit the sighting details to:
sites.zsl.org/inthethames
Zoological Society of London

If you see a marine mammal injured or in distress, call: 01825 765546
British Divers Marine Life Rescue

If you see a deceased individual, call: 0800 652 0333
Cetacean Strandings
Investigation Programme